

OLA Participant Movement Between Public Health Units (2021 Season)

Team Movement

Teams may only travel outside their health unit to participate in games when both health units are in green, yellow or orange zones Both training sessions and modified game play are allowed in and between these zones	Teams in the red or grey zones may not travel outside of their public health unit to participate in club training Training sessions are allowed in the red zone only Virtual training continues in the grey zone
--	--

Player/Coach Movement

Players and coaches may only travel outside their health unit to participate when both health units are in green, yellow or orange zones Both training sessions and modified game play are allowed in and between these zones	Players and coaches in the red or grey zones may not travel outside their public health unit for club training Training sessions are allowed in the red zone only Virtual training continues in the grey zone
---	---

Officials Movement

Officials may only travel outside their health unit to participate in games when both health units are in green, yellow or orange zones Modified game play is allowed in and between these zones	Officials in the red and grey zones may not travel outside of their public health unit to participate in games Virtual training sessions are permitted for officials
--	--

This information is provided in accordance with Ontario Emergency Order 364/20, and is subject to change pending updates provided to restrictions for Team Sports

